

NBL Spectator Standards

Your attendance at any NBL game, event or activity implies your acknowledgement and agreement to comply with these Spectator Standards and any applicable NBL or venue policies. You must ensure that any person under the age of 18 years of age (or otherwise incapable of giving consent) who you buy or provide a ticket for or accompanies you to an NBL game, event or activity, will also comply.

Spectator behaviour and exclusion

Spectators at NBL games are expected to behave appropriately at all times and must not engage in serious unbecoming conduct or behaviour, including but not limited to the following (Prohibited Conduct):

- (a) assault;
- (b) damage of property;
- (c) throwing, or attempting to throw, a projectile in any game venue;
- (d) any conduct towards any NBL player, coach, referee or NBL Club support staff which threatens, offends, insults, humiliates, intimidates, or vilifies;
- (e) act in a way to disrupt, interrupt or behave in a manner that may disrupt any NBL games; and/or
- (f) engaging in courtsiding, as detailed below.

By attending a venue where an NBL game, event or activity is taking place, spectators agree to the following conditions:

- (a) venues where NBL games are held will have their own security requirements by which all spectators must comply with. This includes use of cameras and recording surveillance (including CCTV), bag check, personal checks and the use of metal detectors. Certain items are prohibited and will not be allowed into the venue;
- (b) if engaging in Prohibited Conduct, the NBL, the relevant NBL Club or the venue, as appropriate may prohibit and/or disqualify such spectator from entering some or all game venues;
- (c) in such an instance, the offending spectator will be issued with an official banning notice. The reach and duration of the notice will be determined by the NBL and/or the venue on a case-by-case basis. Penalties may include immediate disqualification from the venue, disqualification from any NBL game, official NBL season bans, an official venue ban and/or an official NBL Club ban;
- (d) the spectator will be asked to provide personal information, including their name, address and the taking of a photograph for identification purposes; and
- (e) any such information regarding a spectator's behaviour at an NBL game (including their personal information, the details of any banning notice and/or any courtsiding data) may be shared with the NBL, the NBL Clubs, the relevant venue, any venue that hosts or may host an NBL game and the relevant authorities as required.

Courtsiding

Courtsiding is the act of capturing, recording and/or transmitting match data, match related data or match vision whilst at an NBL game. Spectators agree that:

- (a) any attendees at an NBL game must not participate in, assist with or encourage courtsiding or the transmission of data without authorisation by the NBL, as determined by the NBL in its sole discretion. This includes any transmission of match data in any format, including the services performed by data scouts, data journalists, data commentators etc;
- (b) any person suspected of engaging in courtsiding will be asked to leave the venue immediately and have their personal information submitted to the NBL, the NBL Clubs and to Basketball Australia; and
- (c) they have read and understood Basketball Australia's Courtsiding Policy found here.

Risk of entry

Spectators acknowledge and agree that attendance at any NBL game, event or activity at a venue is not without risk and spectator's accept and voluntarily assume all of the risks, including inherent and obvious risks, arising from attendance at the venue. Such risks include but are not limited to suffering injury (including serious injury) or property damage. Spectators agree:

- (a) to release the NBL from any loss suffered;
- (b) that they are responsible for any loss, damage or injury caused to the spectator or others; and
- (c) to indemnify the NBL against any claim or liability in respect of such loss, damage or injury.
